OBJECTIVE:

To ensure that research conducted involving St. Anne Community and Nursing Care Centre is carried out through a process that does no harm to anyone or infringes on their rights using moral and ethical principles.

CONTENT:

All research conducted involving the administration, operations and clients of St. Anne Centre must be approved by the Board of Directors.

All research conducted at St. Anne Centre must have Ethical Standards approval through the Personnel and Standards Committee and Board of Directors and be in line with the ethical principles held by St. Anne Community and Nursing Care Centre.

The administrator of St. Anne Centre will function as the contact for seeking Ethics Standards review and Board of Directors approval.

The Board of Directors reserves the right to refuse any requests to conduct research that it decides is inappropriate.

PROCEDURE:

All requests for research are to be directed to the administrator.

The administrator will review the application and forward it to the Personnel and Standards Committee including any ethical review documentation included.

The Personnel and Standards Committee perform the following:

- (b) Review any ethical processes used by the sponsor or sponsoring individuals or organizations.
- (c) If no ethical review accompanies or precedes the research request, the committee will request it from the originator before proceeding.
- (d) If the ethical review is tenuous, further ethical review must be requested.
- (e) If the committee determines that the research is complex or the given ethical review is in any way questionable, the request for research must be stayed until (i) the Researcher or Organization funds a third party review or (ii) the Committee requests such a review.
- (f) If the committee remains uncertain about the ethics involved in the requested research, as an exception, and if the committee deems it may be of significant value to St. Anne Centre and/or its staff or clients, the committee may request permission of the Board of Directors to ask the Department of Health and Wellness to fund an ethics review (Third Party ie. Universities = Ethics Panel, the Department of Health and Wellness or other Organizations).

(g) In the event of a third party ethical review, the committee will solicit permission from all affected parties.

(h) Upon satisfaction being achieved that the proposed research is ethically sound, the committee will forward the recommendation to the Board of Directors for approval of the said research.

(i) The Personnel and Standards Committee may reject any research it deems inappropriate at any stage prior to approval of the Board of Directors.

(j) The Personnel and Standards Committee must notify the research applicant or sponsor of the approval or rejection, in writing.

(k) All records relating to research requests are deemed confidential and must be retained by the secretary in the Board of Directors secure files.

4. Surveys requested by organizations other than the Department of Health and wellness that do not identify clients or staff are to be handled by the administrator provided he/she feels they are in line with St. Anne Community and Nursing Care Centre ethical principles.
